

Erick Uphoff is a professional dancer, choreographer, and educator with more than 20 years of experience teaching students of all ages. His professional credits include Nickelodeon's Victorious and iCarly, as well as Step Up: High Water, Descendants: The Rise of Red, Doom Patrol, Honey: Rise Up and Dance, and Love, Simon. Erick is also a former Atlanta Hawks dancer and a two-time World Dance Championship-winning choreographer for Team USA.

He is passionate about helping students develop confidence, creativity, and strong technique in a positive and encouraging environment. Erick and his wife, Amanda Hale Uphoff, LCS class of 2006, are proud members of the Landmark community. Their children, Stella, a first-grade student, and Jackson, a K4 student, also attend Landmark. As a family, they attend The Bridge Church in Fairburn.